

DECLÉOR

The latest addition to Decléor's popular Excellence range is Aromessence Excellence, a regenerating serum formulated with ultra-concentrated plant extracts and essential oils. It uses a blend of nine key oils, including magnolia from China, which makes its Decléor debut in this product. Ageing skin is also boosted by a collagen complex, plus antioxidants to fight free-radical damage. The serum is recommended for use with the existing Excellence de L'âge Sublime Regenerating Cream in the morning and Baume Excellence at night. A 15ml bottle of the serum has an RRP of £70.
