"Pedicures range from £15 - £30 depending on how you tailor make your treatments," explains head of education at The Beauty Partnership, Shona Hunt. "I think it's important to provide a service to suit all customers - especially clients who are struggling with today's economic climate. Why not introduce different price brackets to your treatment menu? For example, there are seven steps to the Rainforest pedicure: soak, shape, cuticles, scrub, masque, lotion and polish. So make three different options for clients to choose from."

Option one - £10 - offer three of the above treatments

Option two - £15 - offer four of the above

Option three - £25-£30 - offer all of the above
